

Vibrators for Precast Formwork Systems

As subject to formwork or mould design we offer you adequate vibration motors for the concrete compaction.

The frequency of the vibrators at your precasting plant is infinitely variable by means of a frequency converter.

We send you further information and specifications by request.